

KYRA GEOGHEGAN

Studio Director

(R.A.D RTS, R.A.D Teachers Cert. (Classical Ballet). A.T.C.L (Musical Theatre), Acrobatic Arts Teachers Cert.)

Kyra has spent many years sharing her love and passion for performing with the aspiring young performers in Mackay. She has taught and mentored a number of award winning dance, drama and music theatre students in Eisteddfod solos and groups, as well as successfully trained students in both graded and Vocational Ballet exams, CSTD Contemporary and Jazz exams, and Trinity College London Drama and Musical theatre exams.

Kyra has a wealth of experience, and is well known throughout the Mackay community through her involvement in many community productions through Red Giraffe Theatre and Mackay Musical Comedy Players, where she has been both on stage in a number of lead roles as well as behind the scenes in direction and choreography. Kyra also coaches the Bachelor of Music Theatre students at the CQ University Conservatorium of Music (CON) in ballet, jazz, movement and technique.

Kyra trained in classical ballet under her mother Stella Geoghegan and in 2014 obtained her Teacher's Certificate through the Royal Academy of Dance. Kyra also trained in all other dance forms through the Leisa Payne School of Dance, and studied drama and music theatre through Studio Pierrot, obtaining her A.T.C.L in Music Theatre in 2007. Kyra's passion for the Performing Arts is at its strongest in her teaching, and she is looking forward to a fabulous inaugural year at Aspire Performing Arts Studio alongside her Mum Stella, and the fantastic team of talented Aspire teachers.
