

AMY BENSON

TEACHER

Amy has a passion for dancing and performing which she loves to share with others. Amy has grown up in Mackay, training in various dance forms and studying Musical Theatre as well. Amy also completed numerous exams, and participated in local and regional eisteddfods. Studio Director, Stella Geoghegan trained Amy in ballet and helped inspire Her to become a dance teacher.

Amy moved to Brisbane to study a Bachelor of Fine Arts (Dance) at Queensland University of Technology (QUT). During this time, she studied with various industry professionals of an international level, including artists from local Brisbane Dance Companies, Queensland Ballet and Expressions Dance Company.

During her studies, Amy has performed in professional productions at the Queensland Performing Arts Centre. She was a member of the QUT Cheer and Dance Team in and her elite team won the 2019 National University Premier Division in Jazz.

In Brisbane, Amy taught at a local Gymnastics and Dance Studio, Active Arts Australia. Here she taught gymnastics, acrobatics, tumbling, ninja and tricking, as well as choreographing dance and acro routines.

Amy loves teaching, choreographing, and helping students with their passion for dance.
